

FUIJIAN SOCIETY PLOUGHING BACK TO COMMUNITIES

6 On Friday 14 June, 2013 the Fujian Society, working together with the Department of Social Development, Police, Roads and Transport and the Department of Education donated bicycles, school uniforms to disadvantaged children as well as food parcels and blankets to the elderly people in Botshabelo.

The MEC for Social Development Me “Sisi” Ntombela took liberty of thanking the Fujian Society for the amazing job they are doing for the Free State communities and encouraged them to continue doing so.

MEC “Sisi” Ntombela and the Fujian Society

Donated bicycles & school uniform

The Free State Fujian Society which sources funding from the Chinese community started their donations project targeting children and elderly from disadvantaged backgrounds in South Africa. The project which was initially meant for rural schools was extended to township schools due to the high rate of poverty in those areas.

Learners receiving Uniform and bicycles

Elderly receiving blankets & food parcels