

April 9, 2014

MEDIA RELEASE

The body of little Olwethu Mpedi will finally be laid to rest tomorrow at South Park Cemetery in Bloemfontein at a funeral attended by, MEC for Social Development Me. Sisi Ntombela, African National Congress Women's League and Bergman Community.

Olwethu died in 2007 after her father allegedly killed and buried her in a toilet pit at their home in Bergman Square. The victim's sister reported the matter to police in March this year after years of silence; she was allegedly threatened with death by her father if she reported the matter.

The accused is also arrested for murdering his biological mother and father in law in the Eastern Cape, attempted murder of Olwethu's grandmother and rape that occurred in the Mangaung area , he will remained in police custody until his bail application on Friday.

The details of the funeral are as follows:

DATE: 10 April 2014

TIME: 11am

VENUE: 21279 Bergman Square

Members of the Media are invited to this occasion.

Issued by Department of Social Development Communications
Galaletsang Moncho-083 274 1022

“WORKING TOGETHER WE CAN DO MORE”